

THIS GALAXY IS OURS

Transmit the helium back in to its Efimov state
Direction of the xray catheter towards the Chromium Plate
We're on our way, we're on our way, this ship is ours
Been waiting scared shitless for a wormhole for several hours

Time is bending backwards as we enter within this wall of sound
Ready to escape with all the gamma rays that we have found

The lights went out on Broadway late last night
Harness enough of the energy for this last ride
we're on our way, we're on our way, this ship is ours
Been waiting scared shitless for a wormhole for so many hours

Waiting waiting waiting waiting waiting waiting waiting Hangin'hangin'hangin'hangin'hangin'hangin'hang in

The Lorenz Attractor is moving right out of our grasp
The aliens attacking us as we draw our next-but-final gasp
There are these holes in this timeline
Einstein was right
We're moving into ultraviolet and way out of sight

Packitup

This galaxy is ours for the taking and we feel no remorse
Open up all the boson traps and find all the hidden doors
We're on our way, we're on our way, this f ship is ours
Been waiting in this black hole which we call Our Holy Towers Hangin'hangin'hangin'hangin'hangin'hang in

We're moving back out into space like some fungus on a rock
Slipping inbetween the interstellar matter like some gravity block
Bones & skin are lifted into a new DNA slot
It's all that it takes to remake the universal plot
It's burning burning burning close to our backs
Magnesium flares all ready to attack
